

Principle 1 - Focusing on the purpose of the authority and on outcomes for the community including citizens and service users and creating and implementing a vision for the local area

No	Element	Score	Comments/Conclusions
1	Developing and promoting the authority's purpose and vision	8
2	Reviewing on a regular basis the Council's vision for the local area and its implications for the Council's governance arrangements	6	The scope and extent of organisational change within the council brings a need to review and establish effective governance arrangements with the new structures and managerial arrangements.
3	Encouraging partnerships of which the Council is a member to be underpinned by a common vision of their work that is understood and agreed by all partners	7	Arrangements are improving with the ongoing roll-out of the partnership evaluation programme.
4	Ensuring that priorities and objectives are aligned to principal statutory obligations and available funding	8
5	Knowing how well the Council is performing against planned outcomes	7	A review of the performance management framework in 2009/10 has improved the focus on performance. These improvements will need to be built on in implementing the management restructure.
6	Ensuring that knowledge of absolute and relative performances achieved is used to support decisions that drive improvements in outcomes	6
7	Publishing an annual report on a timely basis to communicate the Council's activities and achievements, its financial position and performance	9
8	Deciding how the quality of service for users is to be measured and making sure that the information needed to review service quality effectively and regularly is available.	6	As nos 5 & 6. Also, Corporate Plan action to review all statutory services to provide assurance that minimum standards can be met and to quantify any services provided above minimum standards standards (key action 4.1)
9	Putting in place effective arrangements to identify and deal with failure in service delivery	7
10	Deciding how value for money is to be measured and making sure that the Council and its key partnerships have the information needed to review value for money and performance delivery.	6	Reflected in Corporate Plan Objective 5: "To continue to work with our partners to deliver the targets in the Sustainable Community Strategy and to bring about other improvements and efficiencies in the way that services are delivered locally.
11	Measuring the environmental impact of policies, plans and decisions.	6	Reflected in Corporate Plan Objective 1: "Energy Coast, and Environmental Technology" and Objective: 3. "To tackle the challenges of Climate Change"

Principle 2 - Members and officers working together to achieve a common purpose with clearly defined functions and roles

No	Element	Score	Comments/Conclusions
12	Setting out a clear statement of the respective roles and responsibilities of the executive and of the executive's members individually and the Council's approach towards putting this into practice	8
13	Setting out a clear statement of the respective roles and responsibilities of other Council members, members generally and of chief officers	6	Review required in light of the organisational and managerial change occurring within the council.
14	Determining a scheme of delegation and reserved powers within the constitution, including a formal schedule of those matters specifically reserved for collective decision of the Council, taking account of relevant legislation, and ensuring that it is monitored and updated when required	6
15	Making the Council's Chief Executive responsible and accountable to the Council for all aspects of operational management	8
16	Having arrangements in place for the Leader of the Council and the Chief Executive to discuss their respective roles early in the relationship and to maintain a shared understanding of roles and objectives	8
17	Making the Head of Financial Services (as Section 151 officer) responsible to the Council for ensuring that appropriate advice is given on all financial matters, for keeping proper financial records and accounts, and for maintaining an effective system of internal financial control	8
18	Making the Head of Legal and HR Services (as Monitoring Officer) responsible to the Council for ensuring that agreed procedures are followed and that all applicable statutes and regulations are complied with	8
19	Having protocols in place to ensure effective working relationships between members and officers in their respective roles	8
20	Setting out the terms and conditions for remuneration of members and officers and having an effective structure for managing the process including an independent remuneration panel for elected members	6	The effective operation of the independent remuneration panel is currently compromised through a shortage of members and lack of a chairman; a recruitment exercise is being conducted. The post job-evaluation programme means that terms and conditions for officers continue to be under review.

Principle 2 - Members and officers working together to achieve a common purpose with clearly defined functions and roles

No	Element	Score	Comments/Conclusions
21	Ensuring that effective mechanisms exist to monitor service delivery	7
22	Ensuring that the organisation's vision, strategic plans, priorities and targets are developed through robust mechanisms, and in consultation with the local community and other key stakeholders, and that they are clearly articulated and disseminated	7
23	When working in partnership, ensuring that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> members are clear about their roles and responsibilities both individually and collectively in relation to the partnership and to the Council;</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> there is clarity about the legal status of the partnership;</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> representatives of partner organisations both understand and are committed to meeting clearly defined good governance principles; and</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> representatives of organisations both understand and make clear to all other partners the extent of their authority to bind their organisation to partner decisions.</li> </ul>	6	Arrangements are steadily improving with the ongoing roll-out of the partnership evaluation programme.

Principle 3 - Promoting the values of the Council and demonstrating the values of good governance through behaviour

No	Element	Score	Comments/Conclusions
24	Ensuring that the Council's leadership sets the tone for the organisation by creating a climate of openness, support and respect	7
25	Having Codes of Conduct in place to ensure that the standards of conduct and personal behaviour expected of members and staff are defined and communicated	8
26	Having protocols in place to ensure that standards for joint working between members and staff and between the Council (members/officers), its partners and the community are defined and communicated	6	See no 23
27	Having arrangements in place to ensure that members and employees of the Council are not influenced by prejudice, bias or conflicts of interest in dealing with different stakeholders and having in place appropriate processes to ensure that they continue to operate in practice	6	Action is being taken to address specific failings identified during 2009/10 in the Council Housing Repairs & Maintenance Service. There is a need for expected standards of conduct to be regularly promoted within the Council.
28	Developing and maintaining shared values including leadership values both for the organisation and staff reflecting public expectations, and communicating these with members, staff, the community and partners	7
29	Having arrangements in place to ensure that systems and processes are designed in conformity with appropriate ethical standards, and by monitoring their continuing effectiveness in practice	6	Improved focus on ethical considerations since 2008/09. Reviewing the effectiveness of systems and processes is inherent in internal audit activity and is monitored under the performance management framework.
30	Maintaining an effective standards committee	8
31	Using the organisation's shared values to act as a guide for decision making and as a basis for developing positive and trusting relationships within the Council	8
32	In pursuing the vision of a partnership, agreeing a set of values (to be demonstrated both individually and collectively by partners) against which decision making and actions can be judged	6	See no 23

Principle 4 - Taking informed transparent decisions which are subject to effective scrutiny and managing risk

No	Element	Score	Comments/Conclusions
33	Maintaining an effective scrutiny function which encourages constructive challenge and enhances the Council's performance overall	7
34	Maintaining open and effective mechanisms for documenting evidence for decisions and recording the criteria, rationale and considerations on which decisions are based	7.5
35	Having arrangements in place to safeguard members and employees against conflicts of interest and having appropriate processes to ensure that they continue to operate in practice	8
36	Maintaining an effective audit committee which is independent of the executive and scrutiny functions	8
37	Ensuring that effective, transparent and accessible arrangements are in place for dealing with complaints	8
38	Ensuring that those making decisions, whether for the Council or one of its partnerships are provided with information that is fit for the purpose (i.e. is relevant, timely and gives clear explanations of technical issues and their implications)	7
39	Ensuring that proper professional advice on all matters including those that have legal or financial implications is available and recorded well in advance of decision making and is used appropriately	7.5
40	Ensuring that risk management is embedded into the culture of the Council, with members and managers at all levels recognising that risk management is part of their jobs	7
41	Ensuring that risk management processes specifically consider risks in relation to significant partnerships and provide for assurances to be obtained about the management of those risks	7
42	Ensuring that there are well-established and clear arrangements for financing risk	7
43	Ensuring that sound financial management is promoted	7.5
44	Having in place effective arrangements for whistle-blowing, to which officers, staff and all those contracting with or appointed to the Council have access	8
45	Having effective arrangements to counter fraud and corruption	7
46	Having effective arrangements in place to ensure business continuity	7

Principle 4 - Taking informed transparent decisions which are subject to effective scrutiny and managing risk

No	Element	Score	Comments/Conclusions
47	Ensuring the safety of staff, contractors and visitors	6	Assessment lowered to reflect organisational change leading to accommodation changes raising potential access and security issues within council buildings.
48	Ensuring that the Council's internal control framework is subject to regular independent assessment	8
49	Actively recognising the limits of lawful activity placed on the Council by, for example, the ultra vires doctrine but also striving to utilise available powers to the full benefit of its communities	8
50	Observing all specific legislative requirements placed upon the Council, as well as the requirements of general law, and in particular integrating the key principles of good administrative law, viz rationality, legality and natural justice, into procedures and decision making processes	8

Principle 5 - Developing the capacity and capability of members to be effective and ensuring that officers – including the statutory officers -also have the capability and capacity to deliver effectively

No	Element	Score	Comments/Conclusions
51	Providing induction programmes tailored to individual needs and opportunities for members and officers to update their knowledge on a regular basis	7
52	Ensuring that the statutory officers have the skills, resources and support necessary to perform effectively in their roles and that these roles are properly understood throughout the Council	6	There is a need to consider the statutory officers' position in the new management structure and ensure that their roles are understood throughout the organisation.
53	Assessing the skills required by members and officers and making a commitment to develop those skills to enable roles to be carried out effectively	7
54	Developing skills on a continuing basis to improve performance, including the ability to scrutinise and challenge and to recognise when outside expert advice is needed	7
55	Ensuring that effective arrangements are in place for reviewing and developing the performance of the executive as a whole and of its individual members	6	Developments made in assessing the effectiveness of elected members in the executive. With the implementation of the new management restructure, arrangements should be in place to assess the performance of the executive as a whole, including executive management.
56	Having effective arrangements in place which are designed to encourage individuals from all sections of the community to engage with, contribute to and participate in the work of the Council	6	The Council has not, to date, delivered its planned work surrounding equalities. The Corporate Plan 2010-2013 includes key actions to:  "...deliver the council's agreed contributions to achieve the priorities and outcomes in the Sustainable Community Strategy and LDLSP's Thematic Group action plans including Equality and Diversity" (action ref 5.1); and  "... become an 'achieving' authority' under the Equality Framework for Local Government' by March 2011" (action ref 5.5)
57	Ensuring that effective Member development and employee development strategies and actions are in place	7

Principle 6 - Engaging with local people and other stakeholders to ensure robust local public accountability

No	Element	Score	Comments/Conclusions
58	Making it clear within the organisation, its staff and the local community what the Council is accountable for and to whom	7
59	Considering those institutional stakeholders to whom the Council is accountable and assessing the effectiveness of their relationships	7
60	Producing an annual report on the activity of the scrutiny function	9
61	Ensuring that clear channels of communication are in place with all sections of the community and other stakeholders, and having effective monitoring arrangements in place	7
62	Holding meetings in public unless there are good reasons for confidentiality	9
63	Having arrangements in place to enable the Council to engage with all sections of the community effectively. These arrangements recognise that different sections of the community have different priorities and establish explicit processes for dealing with these competing demands	6	See no 56
64	Operating a clear policy on the types of issues the Council will meaningfully consult on or engage with the public and service users about. This includes a feedback mechanism for consultees to demonstrate what has changed as a result	7
65	Publishing an annual performance plan giving information on the Council's vision, strategy, plans and financial statements as well as information about its outcomes, achievements and the satisfaction of service users in the previous period	8
66	Ensuring that the Council as a whole is open and accessible to the community, service users and its staff and ensuring that it has made a commitment to openness and transparency in all its dealings, including partnerships subject only to the need to preserve confidentiality in those specific circumstances where it is proper and appropriate to do so	7
67	Maintaining a clear policy on how staff and their representatives are consulted and involved in decision making	8
